

Brexit: Implications for Peacebuilding Practitioners

14.00 pm - 15.30 pm, Friday 23rd June 2017

Rutherford Lecture Theatre 2, University of Kent Canterbury, UK

This roundtable event will feature a discussion about how peacebuilding practitioners in the UK will be affected by Brexit. This will focus on some of the unintended (and perhaps intended) consequences of the UK's decision to leave the EU and the challenges it throws up for those working directly on peace and conflict related issues. Some of these challenges may be organisational (in terms of legal and financial changes after Brexit) others may relate to the actual issues and external partnerships that UK practitioner groups have developed.

Guest Speakers:

Teresa Dumasy, Conciliation Resources/CARC

Judith Large, CARC

Ben Moore, European Peace Liaison Office (EPLO)

Phil Vernon, International Alert

Further information

T: 01227 816057

E: polimews@kent.ac.uk

www.kent.ac.uk/politics

University of Kent